General Ellis made ob- his evidence saying the state in this case had put in the response of Mr. Rockefeller to the interrogatories in that case which represented the Standard's case. The state had also filed the issue and replies. Mr. Kline held that to make that record complete it was necessary to put in the conclusion of the court, which, he said dismissed the case at the expense of the state.

"I think," said Mr. Kline, "it comes with mighty poor grace for an officer of this state to object to the introduction of the journal entry of the supreme court of the state."

Mr. Ellis replied by saying that this entry had nothing to do with this case.

The court admitted the evidence. Mr. Kline read this record and then announced "Defendant rests."

"Now let the oratory begin," remarked Phelps.

In a five minutes recess it was arranged that five speeches would be made to the jury, three by the states attorneys and two by the defense. Prosecutor David will open for the state and arguments will be made by Attorney General Ellis and Mr. Phelps for the prosecution. Messrs. Kline and Troup will present the defense to the jury. It is estimated this argument will consume the balance of the day.

Reviewing the documentary evidence to the jury Mr. David said it was not disputed by any one that the Standard Oil trust actually existed in 1882. The state now contends that this same trust only under another name still exists. He mentioned the various local companies now doing business in the state, saying they were members of the original trust.

"The people in this case" said Mr. David, "claim that the Standard Oil company of New Jersey now owns the stock of these subsidiary companies, each one dependent upon the other, and right now doing business among us. We have shown that these same gentlemen—John D. Rockefeller, William Rockefeller, Flagler, Archbold, Rogers—are today the heads of these companies. These men were of the nine original trustees in the trust."

Mr. David said it had been proved that the Standard of New Jersey owned all the shares of the stock of the local companies except one share each owned by the resident directors, a requirement of the state laws. Each one of the subsidiary companies, he said, had a separate function to perform in the oil business and they might as well be called the producing department the gathering department, the refining department and the distributing department. He dwelt at some length on the method of competing in Hancock county against the National refinery, an independent company. The Manhattan company he said was brought into use for this purpose. This company, it had been testified to, was owned in England. In this county, it paid five cents a barrel more for oil than the Buckeye Pipe Line, or the Joseph Seep agency, which he said was the same thing.

However, it bought only about 30 or 40 barrels of oil a day from the Ohio Oil company, which was the producing company for the combination. Where it did buy was wherever it could get oil away from the independent company and no where else.

Mr. David had not concluded his argument when the court took a recess for luncheon from 11:30 until 1:30 o'clock.

Shipp, of Hamilton county, Tennessee and nine deputies to the charge of contempt made by the supreme court in connection with the lynching in Chattanooga last March, of a negro, named Ed. Johnson, after the court had granted an appeal in his case. He takes the position that Johnson's case was not appealable and that therefore the supreme court was without jurisdiction, but that if the court had jurisdiction, Shipp and subordinates were not guilty, as they exercised due diligence to prevent the lynching. Shipp was in the court room, but none of his deputies were present.

URGENT PLEA

For a More Rigid State Supervision

Of National Banks and Trust Companies Was Made Today

BY CLERK WILLIAMS

Before Large Assembly of America's Most Prominent Bankers.

Referred to the Hipple and Stensland Cases as Examples.

By Associated Press.

St. Louis, Oct. 16.—The American Bankers' Association convened today for its thirty-second annual convention when the trust companies section was called to order at the Olympic Theatre simultaneously with the gathering of the savings bank section at Schuler Memorial Hall. The meeting of the association as a whole will not take place until tomorrow. Hundreds of prominent bankers representing every state and territory as well as the United States dependencies are here as delegates and officers of the association, place the total attendance, including delegates and unaccredited visitors at 4,000.

The principal meeting of today was the eleventh annual assembly of the trust company section which was called to order by Clark Williams, vice president of the Columbia Trust Co., of New York, and president of the section. Rev. Wm. J. McKittrick delivered invocation followed by the address of welcome made by Mr. Festus J. Wade, president of the Mercantile Trust Co., of St. Louis.

President Clark Williams replied to the address of welcome and delivered his annual address.

PRESIDENT WILLIAMS

Strongly Advises Adequate Supervision of State Banks.

President Clark Williams of New York, said in his address:

"We are a part of the warp and woof of the financial fabric of this country, and it is to our interest to stand as an integral part of the American Bankers' Association, which aims to bring within its folds the financial powers of the United States.

"The functions of national or state banks and trust companies are co-operative rather than competitive, and it is a satisfaction to recognize in this common association the evidence of a friendly independence between these classes of institutions.

"From a small beginning ten years ago, the trust company section has become a great power with its 700 members, whose assets run into the billions of dollars. The enormous growth of the trust company system, as the result of the demands of existing business conditions and the progressive spirit of our times, has required a response from this organization, and we are under an ever increasing responsibility to see that the power which in us lies is directed to the protection and safe guarding of our institutions. It has been our purpose, so far as possible, to secure the enactment of laws in the different states prohibiting the use of the word "trust" in the title of any corporation not a moneyed corporation or chartered to do a trust company business. We have also endeavored to secure the enactment of laws providing for adequate state supervision of the trust companies, requiring thorough examination and frequent public report. While much has been accomplished, much is yet to be done. We may contemplate with some degree of pride the record of the past.

"Some good may come from the catastrophe of the Real Estate Trust Co. failure at Philadelphia and the Stensland Bank at Chicago, if only in the practical lessons we may learn of lasting benefit. Nothing could more clearly demonstrate the wisdom of the policy in advocating adequate state supervision. It seems to have been so lacking in this particular case that the trust companies of Pennsylvania are considering the advisability of calling a general convention to demand relief from present unsatisfactory conditions.

"With the insurance investigations as a background and with the knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the failures at Chicago and Philadelphia, there has come an awakening of public sentiment, which demands in no uncertain terms a keener appreciation of responsibility by those having in their care the affairs of our financial institutions.

"Are we not in some measure responsible for the lax and perfunctory performance of their trusts by directors? Are we not in some cases satisfied with star chamber proceedings or kitchen cabinet management. I believe it to be the duty of every trust company official, not only to his institution, to himself, to adopt such means as are best calculated to keep the directors of his company closely in touch with its affairs, not only by formal report, but by requiring their frequent personal examination of the cash, securities and loans.

Our clerks should feel a sense of responsibility that would take them farther than personal loyalty to their officers. Employment in a trust company imposes as well a trust to the patrons of the institution and to the public at large. These men are human. Their first impulse to reveal wrong doing and depredation is frequently overcome by the sense of dependence, and they answer their conscience in the easiest way. It is my business. It is our duty to assure them that it is their business and to make it possible for them to do their full duty. I do not advocate a system of tattling, but rather an honor system, that may save the clerk at least his self respect and our institutions pecuniary loss."

MUST GIVE REASON

For the Removal of Colonel Hindman From General Managership.

HEAD OF MUTUAL LIFE

On Trial Today Before Insurance Commissioner Prewitt.

By Associated Press.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 16.—Great interest is centered in the hearing here today, of Chas. A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, before Commissioner of Insurance Henry L. Previtt. Mr. Previtt some time ago cited Mr. Peabody to appear before him and explain the dismissal of Col. Bisco Hindman, of Louisville, general manager of the Mutual Life for Kentucky and Tennessee. Mr. Hindman's name is on the "selected fusion ticket," with thirty-five other names, for election as trustee, as against a similar number of names on the "administration" ticket and the united committees ticket and Mr. Prewitt wants to know why Mr Hindman, who is supposed to represent the policyholders, was removed from office. When the fusion ticket was made up the Mutual Life Insurance company notified its agents that the duties of the trustees were cosidered in compatible with the duties of an employe and called upon all employes to support the administration ticket fully. Mr. Hindman is not the first general agent to be removed from office, as several of the company's men in similar positions in the New England states and Michigan were dismissed. But this is the first time the insurance commissioner of any tate has called upon the company to account for the removal of an officer and the case therefore, is of far reaching importance.

Mr. Prewitt has the power to revoke the charter of any insurance company doing business in the state.

The hearing was held in the historic old capital and the insurance men and members of the legal profession came in large numbers.

Passengers of a Surviving Steamer Give Graphic Accounts

OF TYPHOON HORROR.

Hundreds of the Smaller Boats Broken Into Kindling

While Bodies of Victims Were Mangled Against Stone Walls.

By Associated Press.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 16.—Ten thousand lives blotted out, 17 steamers and sailing vessels wrecked or badly damaged, over a thousand junks swamped, turned over or battered to pieces against the stone walls of the Praya, eight per cent of the lighters, launches, yachts, houseboats and small native craft entirely destroyed, many wharves wrecked, many damaged, was the result of a typhoon lasting but two hours at Hong Kong on September 18th, according to advices brought by the Steamer Empress of Japan, one of the few vessels to escape the disaster which arrived yesterday. The Empress of Japan but a day before gave place at the Kowloon company's wharf to the steamer Changsha, which was entirely wrecked at the dock. Kowloon sustained the heaviest loss, but all sections of Hong Kong and the hinterland suffered. There were 24 Europeans among those killed; others were Chinese, most of the boat and junk population. They usually ran for shelter when the warning gun was fired but on the morning of the storm the signal was fired at 8:10 and at 8:30 the typhoon was at its height. The junk men ran for shelter, colliding with each other, cutting down yachts, houseboats, etc, striving through the driving rain to reach Causeway bay. Thousands were soon thrown into the sea, lashed to a fury, with waves 20 and 30 feet high. The wind blew the junks around and sent them swirling and the houseboats to be dashed to pieces against the Praya where hundred of junks were dashed to matchwood and the mangled bodies of the crews battered against the stone walls within sight.

A list of the steamers sunk ashore or damaged, follows:

Sunk—Steamers Sancheonga, Ayentede, Sorsogan, Kwonchow, Albate, Hoss, Perseveance.

Ashore—Steamers Monte Eagle, (afterward refloated), Heungshan, Kinshana, Changsa, Fatshan, Wingsai, Takhing, Kongmoon, Sunono, H. M. S. Rocario, French gunboat Froundean, and Francisque, Joanne, Sexta, Single, Petraichemma, Luiken and American ship Hotchkiss, this vessel being right until the sea wall near Torpedo depot.

Damaged—Steamers Prinz Waldemar, Devagongse, Quinta, Strathmore, Coptice, Red Bershire, Poona.

When the European officers were endeavoring to save the steamer Hungshan gallantly swimming ashore, thieves started to loot the baggage of the passengers. After saving the vessel the officers turned their attention to the looters, most of whom escaped ashore, some being drowned. The damage at Hong Kong and Kowloon and vicinity is estimated at over $20,000,000. The damage in the city was not enormous being confined to unlifted roofs, broken windows, etc. The bulk of the loss was in the harbor and on the water front.

EIGHT RESCUED; EIGHT DROWNED.

By Associated Press.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 16.—Advices were received of the rescue of the survivors of a Japanese fishing junk by the steamer Tango Maru bound from Seattle to Yokohama, 100 miles off shore. There were eight men clinging to the bottom of an up-turned vessel and eight had been drowned. The survivors were without food on the up-turned hull for four days.

COMPLETELY DESTROYED.

By Associated Press.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 16.—Fire completely destroyed the plant of the John P. Decamp company, manufacturers of steam boat furniture. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

THE LOW COST

Of "Hooking on" to Power in Wood County

Has Been an Inducement for the Prosecution of Operations

UP IN THAT FIELD.

Robinson Pool Resembles the Original One In Wood County.

Report of Last Week's Operations in the Various Fields.

Bowling Green, O., Oct. 16.—Operations are holding their own in the famous old Wood county field. No wells of any great magnitude are being brought in, but they are steady producers and can be hooked right onto power with but little cost, hence, the work in the county is keeping up pretty well. There is no county in the state that has been punctured so full of holes as Wood county, and none of them have produced as much crude. The great pool near Robinson, Illinois resembles much the great Wood county pool in its infancy, but the Wood county wells were much larger, one well producing as much crude as half a dozen Illinois wells.

In Montgomery township, John Ash and others have a 10 barrel pumper in No. 7 on the C. F. Wellam farm, section 25. Bateson, Duesler and others' Nos. 7 and 8 P. Landis farm, section 31 have been adbandoned. Byington & Blessing are drilling No. 12 Wm. Wellam farm, section 36, and Hangstetter & Day have an 8 barrel pumper in No. 10 on the W. H. Bates farm, section 26.

In Henry township, same county, Ira W. Shirley has a dry one in No. 8 on the Bishop Whitten farm, section 25. Montgomery & Stitt are drilling No. 14 on the W. C. Last Week's Operations.

But very little activity is being displayed in the various oil fields of the country outside of the new Illinois regions. There the drill is very active, and many of the wells that were drilled to the sand a few weeks have been drilled deeper and down to the pay, hence, the immense new production that the week's report brings forth.

The most sensational section of the oil fields during the week is centered at Findlay, O., where the case of the state of Ohio against the Standard Oil company is under way, and bids fair not to be terminated for some few days to come. The suit has not created the excitement that many were expecting, as very few new faces have been seen at Findlay.

At the present time there is a production of crude oil in the producing fields of this country that amounts to but a few barrels less than 400,000 barrels a day and less than half of this amount can find a market, therefore, a large portion of it is being put into storage tanks.

The mecca of the oil men at this writing is the productive pool in Oblong and Martin townships, Crawford county, Illinois where wells that produce as high as a thousand barrels a day are being brought in, not a few but a great many of them. The Crawford county field alone for the weeks is credited with 64 wells completed and a new production the first day of 11,300 barrels a most wonderful production for that number of wells, but this must not to be taken that these same wells would after being drilled in a week produce anything like this amount. When these 64 wells are a month old the entire would probably not show a thousand barrels a day, for wells that come in gushers do not always produce the same amount after a few days old as they do the first day. The figures for Illinois will show for themselves.

In Indiana the drill is just being moved along gradually and hardly any more activity can be looked for at this season of the year, but still some new well may be brought in that will create a rush to most any quarter, for a gusher has a great effect upon the average oil operator, who is always watching to get into the push. Indiana has plenty of this style territory but as no wildcatting of any consequence is under way just now, no strikes of this kind are looked for. An advance in the price of the crude product might create an excitement, but it would have to bring the product above the dollar mark to make much of an expression.

Northwestern Ohio is only hold its own in the producing world and the production is gradually dwindling, and the new wells are not sufficiently large to keep the daily average at what it has been during the season of 1906

West Virgina is an unknown quantity and the hills of that country always have something in reserve When one thinks that the territory is completely drilled up some wild catter will open up a gusher and the merry work of bouncing the drill goes on just the same as it did during the most active drilling campaign in that country. Kentucky is something on the order of the West Virginia regions as the oil fields of that state will not be given up until every foot of the hills surrounding the Cumberland foot hills are punctured with holes, so that it will resemble the top of a pepper box.

Southeastern Ohio is dropping back very fast and tha chances are that but little development work will be done there this season.

In the Mid-Continent field of Kansas and Oklahoma there is almost an entire shut down, owing to the condition of the leases in the Indian Territory Lease holders do not know whether or not they own the oil that they are producing on the Indian lands or not, and whether or not they will ever realize from their heavy expenditures. It appears to stand whatever the secretary of the interior feels fit to do, as he appears to have the entire domain under his supervision.

The Texas productive area is depreciating rapidly and hardly enough crude can be had to supply the demand for fuel oil.

The wells of the week are distributed among the various fields as follows:

Field.	Comp.	Prod.	Dry.
Indiana	29	792	3
N. W. Ohio	31	702	2
S. E. Ohio	31	218	18
W. Virginia	29	870	11

HOLDING TO AUTO SAVED HER LIFE.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Knocked down by an automobile at Jackson avenue and Eleventh street, Long Island City, Miss Eliza Carroll, 30 years old, of 10 Pearson street, that place, saved herself from death or serious injury by hanging on to the front of the machine. She was dragged more than fifty feet before the car was stopped.

The automobile was in charge of C. M. Arnheim of 33 Stuyvesant avenue, Newark, N. J. A. H. Langdon, of 518 Broad street, Newark, was the chauffeur. Mr. Arnheim had been out with two women, whose names were refused, and was following in the wake of the almost unbroken line of automobiles that went rushing through Long Island City on the way to the Thirty-fourth street ferry, when Miss Carroll attempted to cross the avenue in front of the oncoming machine The muddy paving blocks were as slippery as grease, and despite the chauffeur's efforts to get the car under control, it ran into Miss Carroll She was badly injured and her clothing was almost torn from her back. She lived about half a block away from the scene of the accident, and was carried to her home.

It was found that the woman's injuries, while severe, are not serious, so the chauffeur was released on bail

TOOTHACHE MADE MAN STEAL HORSE.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 16.—Charles Wright, whom the toothache made a horse thief, was released from the Spokane county jail by order of Gov Mead. The boy is the son of Cassius P. Wright of San Francisco, who has been petitioning for a pardon for months. Since the boy has been in the custody of the sheriff and had he served in the penitentiary the good time allowance on his one year sentence would have brought his release some days ago. Gov. Mead commuted the sentence, so that the discharge was made.

The boy was working north of Spokane last year, when he was attacked by a severe case of toothache. He walked to the nearest town, seeking a dentist and finding none drank whisky to deaden the pain. He then learned that there was a dentist a few miles away and seized a horse that was tied near a saloon and started as fast as possible for the dentist. On arriving there he was arrested, charged with horse stealing, and taken to Spokane, where he pleaded guilty at the trial. His previous character is said to have been of the best. The boy claimed he intended to ride the horse back and return it to the owner as soon as he had the aching tooth extracted, but his arrest prevented.

AN ENGLISH EARL FORMER OF IOWA.

Sioux City, Ia., Oct. 16.—Many people here and for twenty-five miles north are much interested in a recent event in England, which was handled conspicuously by the London newspapers. It was the cristening of the infant Lord Hobert, son and heir of the earl of Buckingham, and a lineal descendant of the patriotic Hampden.

The present earl of Buckingham formerly raised pigs on a good sized ranch some twenty miles north of Sioux City. He then had the "courtesy" title of Lord Hobert, and was a member of a large English colony which settled hereabouts in the '80s. The earl has been married eighteen years, and Lord Hobert is the first son, two daughters having been born some years since. One of the godfathers of this important baby was the master of Magdalene college at Cambridge, the Rev. Stuart Donaldson, who married lord Buckingham's eldest sister, Lady Albina Hobart Hampden, six years ago. While liked and considered a "good fellow."

THE STAGE.

Of all the many plays that visited Lima probably there are none that made a better impression or secured a stronger hold upon the theatre-goers than did "York State Folks," that charming play of rural life.

"York State Folks" returns to the Faurot Opera House this evening with the same great cast as last seen here, including James Lackaye in his creation of Simon Peter Martin, the irascible village boss; Ray L. Royce in the lovable character of the old organist; Harry Crosby, as the shady horse-trader; Mrs. Sidman, as the neighbor's girl; Randolph Currie, the manly son of old Simon Peter Martin; the three children who have been pronounced the cleverest tots before the public and all the others who assisted in making the original production of "York State Folks" the great success it is.

x x x x

The mere fact that the coming engagement of "York State Folks" at the Faurot Opera House tonight is announced as the final season of the beautiful play of the New York country life, before its trip abroad, will undoubtedly serve to attract an audience that will fill the house to overflowing on that occasion.

There has never been a play written that so appeals to the heart as "York State Folks" or that shows the possibilities of a beautiful story (vaudeville told, without the accentuated slapstick villian, etc., that makes up the best part of the ordinary drama that was a constant menace to public health of the city and it was through health officer Dr. Jones that the matter was called to the attention of the officers of the state board. It is claimed that the village government of Ada constructed this dangerous sewage system against the advice of the state board of health.

City Solicitor Eastman and two members of the board of public service will go to Columbus within a few days to confer with the attorney general.

More Water Workes Trouble.

The board of public service called the attention of the council to the fact that the vitrified tile conduit line which was laid by the water works storage reservoir contractors, to convey water from the new reservoir to the Lost Creek reservoir, is leaking badly, causing the fields of the farms through which it extends to become flooded and causing the city a loss of millions of gallons of water daily. The members of the present board discovered the faulty condition of the conduit line when they took charge of their duties nearly a year ago and they have endeavored, up to the present time, to get some service out of the present line, but as the losses have become costly, they called upon the council to provide funds with which they may secure relief from the situation by constructing an iron conduit line.

An ordinance providing for the sale of $6,000 worth of bonds, to provide for the construction of an iron conduit was, on motion, authorized and was introduced and read.

Stedke Claim Allowed.

The claim of N. F. Stedke, for fifty dollars, due for his making an inspection of the Timberlake sewer, at the instigation of the council finance committee, was finally allowed, after it had been hanging fire in the council for several weeks. After a resolution allowing routine bills and claims had been adopted by the council Mr. Collins moved to allow the Stedke claim and the motion was promptly seconded by Mr. Odell and was carried by the council, all members voting yes, except Messrs. Davison and Larimer.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

CAUSE FOUND

For Prevalence of Typhoid Fever.

Several Families on South Jackson Street Victims of the Disease.

SOUTH SIDE DOINGS.

Wm. Dietrick, a Lima Man, Injured at Spencerville Yesterday.

Wedding Announced; a Dinner Party, and Other Brief Mention.

Over on south Jackson street, in one square, there are eight cases of typhoid fever, and residents of that locality are highly indignant because of certain things leading to the breeding of typhus germs are allowed to prevail.

One cause given is, that many back yards in that locality need filling in, as at present these yards resemble a rain turned up-side-down and are seldom without pools of stagnant water or muck.

Another cause given, is that the refuse of a certain barn is piled up right at the edge of the sidewalk, and after a rain the water and filth accumulate to such an extent that pedestrians are compelled to wade through it, or go around, and breathe the ill-smelling stench into their lungs. This latter condition also prevails on Reece avenue, south of the Erie at the first alleyway.

A Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Vail and children, Lorren and Jeanette; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller and son Earnest; Mrs. O. J. Miller and daughter Cecil; Arthur Headapohl and Clarence Miller, of Wapakoneta, were entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Miller, of 154 east Eureka street.

Among those reported to be afflicted with typhoid in the south Jackson street district are Mrs. George Ferrall and two children, Mrs. Wm. Dorrey, Mrs. Worrell, and thre other children whose names were not given.

Mrs. Ferrall and Mrs. Dorrey are critically ill.

TONGS SLIPPED.

And Wm. Dietrick was Badly Injured Yesterday.

Yesterday morning, while working with the pipe line gang west of Spencerville, Wm. Dietrick, of this city, was seriously injured.

A message to Jacob Rise, of west Kibby street, Dietrick's father-in-law, stated that the victim had small chances of surviving.

A Times-Democrat representative met and interviewed Chas. Bice, of Spencerville, at the Erie depot this morning, and he said Dietrick was handling a pair of heavy pipe tongs, who they slipped off the pipe and struck the victim on the back just below the neck, injuring his spine. Mr. Bice did not seem to think the injury serious, but said he could not say as to the final result.

Mrs. Jacob Rise went to Spencerville this morning to help care for her son-in-law, and probably bring him to the city hospital.

Rumored Wedding.

A coming wedding event will be that of Lester A. Reid, the bookkeeper for W. A. Smith, and Miss Mrytle Dutcher, of McPheron avenue, a stenographer for the Electrical company.

Briefly Told.

Wilda Rupert and Charles Bice, of Spencerville, were among the arrivals on the early morning Erie train.

Mrs. W. D. Cox, of Toledo, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Myers, and husband, of 919 south Elizabeth street.

The F. L. Butler family, of south West street, are entertaining his father, L. W. Butler, and daughter, Mrs. Grace Seitz, of Ottawa, and John Stauffer and daughter, Mrs. Charles Whiteman, of Nappanee, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery, of Newport, Ky., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Vernon, on Greenlawn avenue.

Mrs. Wm. Cunningham, of Bluffton, is also a guest of the A. W. Vernon family. This is the first time in 15 years that Mrs. Cunningham has been out of her home town; and as to Lima, well, she would hardly have recognized it, so great has been the growth.

Miss Bessie Holden, of Van Wert, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Young, of west Kibby street.

Frank Warner, night yardmaster at the L. E. & W. yards, has obtained a leave of absence, and will mingle with friends in Kansas City.

DICKISM AND COXISM ARE MAKING A STRENUOUS FIGHT AGAINST THE PEOPLE FOR CONTROL OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. IF THEY SUCCEED THE PEOPLE WILL LOSE. BUT THE MASSES HAVE ONE RESOURCE. IF THEY LOSE IN CONVENTION THE BALLOT IS STILL THEIR WEAPON.—REPUBLICAN-GAZETTE, SEPT. 12, 1906.

The simplified form of spelling recommended by the Carnegie spelling commission and endorsed by President Rosevelt, has been adopted by the Columbus board of education, upon the recommendation of Superintendent Shawan, and will be taught in the schools of that city.

The country never faced so serious a condition in transportation affairs as today. The railroads are unable to take care of the business offered to them. They have not the cars and cannot get them built. The freight making industries of the country have probably doubled their output in a decade; but obviously it has been impossible for the railroads to double their capacity in that time.

The Toledo Blade has the following to say of the head of the democratic state ticket editorially:

A week ago S. A. Hoskins, democratic candidate for secretary of state, made public a letter in which he comes out flat-footed for county local option and declares he holds as strict temperance views as did the late Governor Pattison. They who know Mr. Hoskins understand this letter was not written merely for political effect, as he has been recognized as a strong advocate of all practical temperance measures.

The Audubon Society calls for reports of any violation of the state law for the protection of wild birds, and proposes to prosecute vigorously any offenders against whom the requisite evidence can be obtained. The call should be heard. The destruction of birds has been growing more unpopular in America for some years past, but there are still persons who violate the law and will continue to do so unless deterred by cases of salutary punishment. The protection of wild birds is not a mere sentiment. Their value to farmers and fruit growers through the destruction of injurious insects has been demonstrated beyond question, and their preservation is a material state interest.

The recent arerst of Joseph Smith, the head of the Mormon church in Utah, can be considered as little more than a joke. In the common parlance of the day, it is a "grand stand" play upon the part of the Mormons. It will be remembered that the arrest was made by Mormon officers and that Smith was almost immediately released upon a nominal bond.

The story that the Mormons are determined to stamp out plural marriages, in view of the facts as they are known to exist, is little short of ridiculous. Poligamy is practiced today among the Mormons to almost the same extent that it was before a law, forbidding plural marriages was passed. The christian world has always looked upon the Mormons with suspicion. The unseating of Senator Reed Smoot is evidence of the fact that the people are awake to the conditions which exist and this move upon the part of the Mormons is only an effort to convince the christian people that they are sincere in desiring an end put to the doctrine in their church and practiced by their members.

Renick W. Dunlap, republican candidate for dairy and food commissioner, proved such a faithful creature of the "interests" while a member of the Ohio legislature as to excite the wrath of the State Grange, the members of which declare that Dunlap's vote was responsible for the exemption of state and municipal bonds from taxation, an enactment that has saved thousands of dollars to the rich and powerful financial institutions of the state and threw the burden caused by the deficit upon the plain common people.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

EXCITING CHASE AFTER FUGITIVE.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 16.—After a short, sharp run down Market street, from Mulberry to Lawrence street on the front platform of a trolley car, the motorman of which had been urged to crowd on his highest speed, Policeman Thomas King of the First precinct overtook John Ford, 17 years old, of 215 Second street, Harrison, whom he wanted for alleged reckless driving. Before the younth had been arrested he had run down Alexander M. Robertson, 24 years old, a letter carrier, who was on his way to the Market street station to take a train for Rahway, where he was to play with one of the bands taking part in the fireman's parade.

Robertson had with him a silver and gold mounted cornet, valued at $75, and when he fell the instrument was knocked from his grasp being crushed into uselessness before it could be recovered. Robertson sustained a dislocation of the hip and bruises about the body, and was sent to his home, 217 North Fourth street, in the First precinct patrol wagon.

Ford was driving east on Market street in a rubber tired runabout, when King first espied him, traveling at high speed and beating the horse. The officer called to him to stop, but instead of obeying, the driver urged the animal to greater effort, and was soon speeding at such a rate that King saw it would be impossible to overtake him afoot. Jumping on a car, he explained the situation to the motorman, and the chase was on. It lasted a little over a block. Robertson, unaware of the danger pending, attempted to cross the street, and was knocked down.

King placed Ford under arrest and then turned him over to Policeman Down, who took him to the First precinct station. King meanwhile had looked after Robertson, and sent him home when the patrol wagon arrived.

STATE ECONOMY AS QUAY SEES IT.

Washington, Pa., Oct. 16.—Apropos of Gov. Pennypacker's recent boast that the state had plenty of money from which to build and equip its magnificent capitol, even without any appropriation for more than two-thirds of that colossal expenditure, the character of "reformatory" appliances at a children's state penal institution in this county will be interesting. The Pennsylvania Reform school at Morganza, for years managed by Jerome Quay, brother of Pennsylvania's boss, and now having as a dominant member of its board of managers "Dick" Quay, the late boss' son, is a fair tpye of the lavish means which this state lays out to make criminally inclined or neglected boys and girls better.

In the institution named there were at the beginning of this year, 503 boys and girls, set apart in an institution ostensibly to reform and elevate them. Yet these children—girls as well as boys—are compelled to eat with wooden spoons from wooden bowls and to live almost devoid of the commonest comforts of even the wretched homes from which many of them were sentenced by the courts to this institution.

This opulent and extravagant state cannot afford" to appropriate sufficiently to care for these, its wards, in the formative years of their lives, in a way to really benefit and reform them. There are conditions of cruel denial of the commonest comforts of life in this institution sufficient to bring the blush of shame to the cheeks of those who boast the state's superabundance of means for investment in $2,000,000 chandliers, $800 flagstaffs, $100,000 electrolier globes, etc.

DUCKS SCARCE

Lake Mercer is Not Sheltering Large Number.

Marshal Weber and Geo. Kistler were out on Lake Mercer the latter part of the week, and came in with the report that ducks are by no means plentiful, says the Celina Standard.

The storm last week sent a few of them down from the north, but directly the sun came out warm, the ducks winged their way to a land that is colder than this, and they tarried not to gratify the sportsmen who go after ducks in October.

REDFERN STYLES MEAN FIGURE STYLE. THE MOST ELEGANT CORSET OF THE SEASON, BECAUSE IT CONFORMS MOST EASILY TO THE FASHION OF THE SEASON.

Presented in Redfern models are the most advanced ideas of the Parisian corsetiere's art, modified, to conform to the American women's figure. The very careful designing and making are responsible for the nicety with which the garment curves into the waist. The smooth surface of the fabrics, pretty, fine lace and pliant Arctic whalebone combine in the production of a corset that is a real luxury.

"Security" Rubber Button Hose Supporters are attached to each Redfern Style. They are the best supporters we know for the best corset we know.

$3.50 to $15.00 the Pair.

Full figures are as rule, considered "hard to fit". We think not, as we have in the splendid Redfern make, models that are specially patterned for full figures.

In this announcement we mention REDFERN "C" the model with deep skirt and curving hip with the long back. This model never fails to improve the figure—in fact, it is the making of the figure. We invite you, if your form answers to this description, to visit our corset department. Our expert will, if so desired, quickly fit you without charge.

they can be made to serve their various purposes.

In the police department there would not be a useless room if it were built today, and it is certainly anything but more than adequate for the future.

We feel that by far the wisest and best course to follow would be to build the building with as few changes as possible from the original plans and specifications. We think we have proven to you that the construction specified is not extravagant, and we have yet to find a man who will say that the building would not be excellently adapted to the uses for which it is planned. If we can find some way to go ahead on the present lines, leaving out the items mentioned in the first list given above, and all other work which can be omitted temporarily, but which can be added to the building later when needed and when there is money to spare, then we may be able to erect a building of which we can all be proud.

The same plans can be used and the specifications can be changed to provide for these changes.

If we change the press brick to common brick except for a wainscot in two rooms. If we make all the other changes already advised in the various contracts and if we leave out the finish on the second floor and omit the cell work until such a time that the cells are torn out of the old building and remodelled, we are safe in saying the contract can be let for the sum of $27,500.

In adopting the report of the citizens' committee you did not specify whether the amount was to be $25,000 or $27,500. We have made an honest effort to reach the former figures and use the original plans. To have new plans drawn for a total cost of $25,000 and discard the present ones would cost more than the $2,500 difference by delay, interest on bonds and loss of rent in the city building, and we consider it the best policy to put this sum in the building. Some of the things we have curtailed we will expect to install through the semi-annual appropriation for these two departments in the next year and if the same can be done, it will be no additional increase in the tax levy as the levy is already made for next year and all we will ask for is the amounts that will be received from the year's levy.

Respectfully submitted,
The Board of Public Safety.

PREFERS PRISON TO WINTER COLD.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 16.—When the wintry winds begin to blow Richard Williams, a cook, desires to be safe within the walls of the Canon City penitentiary, and he so informed Justice of the Peace Carlon when he was arraigned on a charge of burglary. Williams does not like to work, and has an especial antipathy to working in the winter time, therefore, according to his own statement to the court and the testimony of Detective Peter Koehler, who made the arrest, he robbed three restaurants in one night and seven within a week.

Williams waived examination and begged to be immediately tried in the Criminal court. "I am guilty," he said. "I will plead guilty, and I want to be sentenced as soon as possible. If it is not asking too much, you honor, I would like to be in the Canon City Penitentiary by night."

Williams will have his wish for a speedy trial.

Among other restaurants Williams is accused of having robbed are the Dairy, 1613 Tremont; the Central, Sixteenth and Tremont; and the Vienna, at Sixteenth and Stout.

Cabe, of this city, and Lockwood Neely, of Lima, s the culmination of an romance, with its begin- auw University. Mr. Neely d from that institution in o years later he received from Purdue. The bride Pauw two years but was om the Baltimore Wom- in the class of '05. Dur- reer at DePauw, while as ripening, the contract- were specially prominent life of the institution and son more than passing in- ttached to their marriage elonged to Phi Kappa Psi and the bride to Kappa Alpha Theta and in selecting wedding attendants the principals did not go outside the mystic circles.

The church decorations were especially pretty, the altar being heavily banked with palms and flanked on either side by vases of American Beauty roses. Amidst the greenery was an immense bouquet of Easter lilies and in the back ground three cathedral candles with pink tapers. The pillars on either side of the altar were entwined with smilax, tied with pink and lavender ribbons, Phi Psi colors. White satin ribbons marked the pews reserved for the families.

The ushers for the occasion were Messrs. Guernsey Van Riper, I. C. DeHaven, Edward Sullivan and Homer H. McKinstray, all of Indianapolis. Mr. Fred M. Neely, of Lima, O., a brother of the groom, was best man while the bride was attended by her sister Miss Louise McCabe, as maid of honor and Mrs. Mary Lewis Newby, Knightstown; Miss Elinore Rinn, Covington, and Misses Ruth McCabe and Jess Hutchinson, bridesmaids. Miss Jean Kirlm, of Indianapolis, was the organist and immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Louise Tutweiler, also of Indianapolis, sang Chaminade's Amarosa. At the close of the song the music changed to the Lohengrin wedding march for the entrance of the procession. The bride party came down the west aisle, the ushers acting as an escort. They were followed in turn by the bridesmaids, the maid of honor and finally the bride and her father. Dr. C. H. Wilson, the officiating clergyman, and the groom and his best man entered from the vestry to the west of the pulpit and met the bridal procession at the altar. The bride wore a beautiful and becoming gown of white chiffon, trimmed with duchess lace. The tulle veil was caught with orchids and she carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. The maid of honor was attired in white French mouslin with lace trimmings and carried pink roses. The costumes of the bridesmaids were of accordian plaited mull and fashioned alike but Misses Hutchison and Rinn wore pink while Mrs. Newby and Miss Ruth McCabe were gowned in lavender. They all carried pink boquets. During the marriage service, which was read by Dr. Wilson and which included the ring ceremony, the organist played "Evening Star." For the recessional Miss Kirtin played the Mendelssohn march. Following the ceremony there was reception to about two hundred and fifty relatives and friends at the McCabe home on College Hill. The guests were received by the bride and groom, assisted by their parents. The rooms were prettily decorated, a red and pink color scheme being carried out very effectively with palms, ferns, roses and salvia. The parlor assistants were Mrs. Ella H. Barrett, Mrs. Louise G. Harding and Misses Nell Brown and Addie Harding. In double dining rooms a two course luncheon was served, the ribbon bow favors being distributed by Misses Edna Neely and Helen McCabe. The wedding presents, an unusually large and elegant collection, were displayed in an up stairs room. Mr. and Mrs. Neely departed last night for Washington, D. C., and other points of interest in the east on a wedding trip which will continue two weeks. They will be at home at Lima, O., after November fifteenth.

The guests from a distance in addition to those mentioned in the wedding party were Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Neely, St. Marys, O.; Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Murdock, James Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. The entire line of march will be illuminated with red fire, torches and Roman candles.

Attorneys W. T Copeland, and T. R. Hamilton, and Dr. B. A. Long, have full charge of all arrangements, which is an assurance of a successful and enjoyable event in the history of the camp.

After the parade a meeting will be held in the Auditorium, where Head Consul Talbot, a former law partner of Hon William Jennings Bryan, and Dr. F. A Smith, of the supreme medical board, will deliver addresses. POLITIC JUDGE DISMISSED CASE.

By Associated Press.

Boston, Oct 16—The case against Shuan Keller, the Harvard student, charged with assaulting a patrolman, which has been before the authorities in different phases for the past two weeks, was dismissed in the municipal court today The case grew out of the attempt of officers to arrest a party of Harvard men who were skylarking on Boston common, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr, and Shaun Keller, his roommate, being in the party. One of the patrolmen was injured in the encounter.

In dismissing the case, Judge Wentworth commented at some length on it, saying that the efforts of the police to put a stop to the disturbance were commendable, but that with reason Keller was under the belief that his arrest was illegal and under the circumstances, the resistance which he offered was not of undue violence

Iron-Ox TABLETS CURE Constipation

This is What Constipation Does to You

Makes you feel heavy, dull and without ambition.

Shatters the nervous system—makes you feel ready to "fly to pieces" any minute.

Gives you the "blues."

Frequently brings on those torturing sick headaches that tear down the system, and make you feel unfit for work—or play either.

This is how it makes you feel, but what it does to you is much worse.

It opens up the gates so that the most serious diseases quickly fasten themselves upon the body.

Constipation is directly responsible for nearly every case of—

Blind or bleeding piles.

Torpid or enlarged liver.

Backache and many forms of kidney trouble.

Impure blood and eruptions on the skin.

Constipation makes a small cold a serious trouble. When the bowels are wrong, a slight cold rapidly becomes a hard cold, and you know what a hard cold means.

If you realized the value of keeping your bowels in condition as well as your doctor does, you would never be without a box of Iron-Ox Tablets.

They work like a charm.

They don't act like a cathartic pill or a purgative dose—they are simply a mild, but exceedingly effective tonic for the bowels and liver.

They don't induce a habit—you can use them when needed and leave them alone when cured.

Iron-Ox Tablets should be in every home. You try them, and you will get the relief you desire. They cure, even in the most severe cases.

50 Iron-Ox tablets in a handy aluminum pocket case, 25 cents. Extra large family size, [250 tablets], $1.00 Trial package 10 cents. At all druggists, or by mail prepaid. The Iron-Ox Remedy Company, Detroit, Mich.

A RAILROAD REBATE

Suit Against New York Central & Hudson River Opened Today.

United States District Attorney Stimson Conducts Prosecution.

By Associated Press.

New York, Oct 16—When the hearing was resumed today in the case against the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company and Frederick Pomeroy, its traffic manager, on charge of granting rebates to the American Sugar Refining company, United State District Attorney Stimson outlined the prosecution's case

He said that the government will show that on April 26th 1904. Lowell M Palmer acting for the shippers and especially for the firm of George H. Edgar, of Detroit, entered into an agreement with the New York Central and Mr Pomeroy, by which sugar could be hauled to Detroit at the rate of 18 cents a hundred weight, instead of the rate of 23 cents filed with the interstate commerce commission.

The agreement said Mr Stimson, was that the sugar company should pay the regular rate of 23 cents and that later the difference of five cents per hundred pounds would be returned to you It is charged that 17,378,777 pounds of sugar had been shipped on these terms and that rebate payments had been made on this account.

Mr Stimson said that he wished it distinctly understood that all the alleged violation took place in or prior to 1904 so that the prosecution is not undertaken under the new railroad rebate law

Geo Roberts, assistant auditor of the interstate commerce commission, was the first witness called by Mr Stimson to prove the tariffs filed by the New York Central with the commission.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent, medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

REALIZES SHE IS LOSING HER MIND.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 16.—Realizing that she is becoming insane, Mrs. Elizabeth Merrill, of 506 east Sixteenth street has tried for the last few months to end her life by taking poison. Fearing incarceration in an asylum more than she does death, she has begged continually of her husband, W. F. Merrill, to give her poison and end her existence. Feeling powerless to protect her against herself any longer, Merrill took her to the detention ward of the receiving hospital, in order to have her examined as to her sanity.

According to her own story, Mrs. Merrill has been failing mentally for several months. Her husband sent her to a private sanitarium, but nothing could be done to cure her. She has one idea fixed in her mind—that it is better to die than to be crazy. She has begged her husband and every one with whom she has come in contact to give her poison, that she might be spared becoming insane. She has also begged of her husband to take poison also, that they might end together a married life of many years.

Owing to the fact that he did not wish his wife to sleep in the insane ward of the hospital, Merrill did not swear to a complaint against her. He will do so before her examination. Mrs. Merrill is 53 years of age and a native of Ireland.

LIGHTS THE FIRE; EFFECT IS FATAL.

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 16.—At his cabin on Connor creek, seven miles southwest of Elba, in Cassia county, Jack Comerford was found in an unconscious condition. He was lying in some wreckage of the interior of the building. The discovery was made by a hunter. The latter got assistance and took the injured man to Albion, fifteen miles away.

Comerford went to the cabin intending to remain some time working a mining claim he holds there. He reached the cabin about noon and started to light a fire to get dinner, when an explosion occurred that threw him into the corner where he was found. There was some rubbish in the stove, and to this he applied a match. It is supposed some enemy placed a stick of giant powder in the stove.

Comerford's jaw was broken in two places and his body was lacerated with splinters, while a tenpenny nail was driven into his arm. It is thought he sustained serious internal injuries.

NO SOLUTION REACHED BY OFFICIALS OF CITY

In Public Safety Building Muddle.

Mr. Shannahan Declares He is Tired of Dilly-Dallying Methods

AND READY TO QUIT.

Public Safety Board's Report Referred to Citizen's Committee.

Mr. Shannahan Displeased With What He Terms Shabby Treatment.

The city council and board of public safety had another setto last night over the plans proposed for the new fire and police department building which the board has been endeavoring for six months to have erected at the corner of High street and Central avenue. The board submitted an exhaustive report, reviewing the plans for the proposed building and suggesting certain changes by which the primary cost of the building might be cut down to a considerable degree. They recommended withholding the installation of certain fixtures and equipment until such time as the city will have additional funds with which to complete the improvement, and had an ordinance introduced to appropriate sufficient funds with which to proceed with the construction of the building in practical accordance with the original plans of Architects Dawson and McLaughlin. When the report had been read, Mr. Odell moved to refer it to the citizens' committee of five tax payers who recently went over the plans.

The motion was carried by the council and then Mr. Shanahan, of the public safety board took the floor and declared that he was thoroughly tired of the dilly-dallying methods employed by the city council. He had no criticisms to offer against the citizens' committee but he thought those gentlemen had not given the new building plans the long and careful study that the board had and therefore were not in a position to deal with the questions at hand as intelligently as the members of the board. He declared that the board had dealt with the council frankly, plainly, sincerely and honestly and had in return been shabbily treated by the council from the start. He declared that he had about reached the limit of patient effort and was about ready to quit.

The report of the board, which was, by the action of the council, is referred to the citizens' committe, was as follows:

Lima, O., Oct. 16, 1906.

To the City Council, Lima, O.

Gentlemen:—After hearing the report of the citizens committee, we have again gone over the matter carefully and beg leave to make the following report:

From the very first effort which we made toward the erection of a building for the police and fire headquarters; all through the periods of study, of planning and of securing bids; all through the delays and discouragements which he have undergone; and up to the present time we have had but one aim and object in view: The erection of a suitable, substantial and economical structure for our departments.

We believe that the plans and specifications for this building as they stand today, show exactly the sort which the city should erect. We believe that they do not show anything which can be elliminated without some deterriment to the building, either from a point of durability, of sanitation, of convenience or appearance.

We want our position on these points thoroughly understood.

In view of the hesitation on the part of your honorable body to provide the funds necessary to build the building in accordance with our ideas and in view of the urgent need of better quarters for our departments, and the persistant public demand that the building should be erected without further delay, we have been willing to make every possible effort to meet the conditions imposed on us by you.

We have caused a careful restudy of the building by the architects and by the lowest bidders on the work, in order to find out definitely whether your conditions could be met in any reasonable way. We wish to submit to-night, a result of this study and we hope that you will understand that we are sincerely striving to reach some amicable agreement with you, and we also hope that you will be willing to meet us on the plan to be submitted.

We have gone over these plans and specifications with great care and will take up, item by item, the proposed modifications and show the amount of money to be saved by each change as estimated by the various contractors.

The footing and foundation walls will not stand any reduction. They are shown and specified as concrete walls. If they were made of stone they would have to be proportionately thicker and would cost more than concrete walls—also, there is no waste room in the basement. We feel that, outside of certain fittings which will be mentioned later, that there is nothing shown on the foundation and basement plans which can be changed.

We can save a little money on the brick work of the building by three changes.

Common brick absorb water, get dirty easily, and are easily broken and defaced. For these reasons we chose the cheapest impervious pressed brick we could get. If we let these out on the two street fronts of the building, and substituted hard burned common brick in their place, the saving in cost would be $394.

The interior walls of the first story of the fire department are specified to be lined with impervious brick of light color. This was done in order that they might be washed, that they would not be defaced by such blows and other hard usage as they would be subjected to, and that they would always be bright and sanitary. If we should leave a wainscot of this brick five feet high around the walls, should lay up the rest in common brick with struck joints, and paint the same with water paint, the saving in cost would be $196.

The cell room in the police department was also lined with impervious brick for the same reasons mentioned above. If the same sort of wainscot and painted walls were used in this room the saving would be $110.

A concrete floor was shown for the first story of the fire department because we believe it to be the best floor that could b put in, more substantial more cleanly and more durable than anything else we could afford to build This, we feel could not be altered without seriously impairing the building.

The floor, portion and roof of the hay loft have been made fireproof for the reason that there is great danger of fire from the loose hay stored there, and this we feel cannot be eliminated without seriously impairing the building.

The floors of the cell rooms, locker room, bath room, and squad room in the first floor of the police department rest on the ground and will be cheaper if made in concrete as shown than if they were changed to wood.

The rest of the floors of both fire and police department were made concrete for the reason that we felt that the building should be practically fireproof, that the floors should be as sanitary, as sound proof and as vermin proof as possible. While we feel that a change in the method of constructing these floors would be a great detriment to the building, we are ready to concede that such a change might be made without too serious an impairment. This would include leaving out the common venetian mosaic shown in the hall way, public office and second floor, corridor of the police department.

In spite of these omissions and the change to wood construction with plastered ceilings and maple floors the saving would only be $160.

In addition to this the staircases in the police department from the basement to the first floor and from the first floor to the second floor, including the partitions now specified hollow tile, would be changed to wood construction and the saving would amount to $70.

This seems a trifling sum when compared with the advantage of having the fire proof construction. By changing the mosaic floors only to cement we would save an equal sum $350.

And this seems the better way, or in other words, there would be no saving in the change from concrete to wood in the floors which bear light weights.

If the two shower baths in the police department and one in the fire department were omitted leaving out the steel and cement partitions for same, and the cement partitions of the tub baths were changed to wood, the saving would be $67.

If the vault door in the basement, one vault door in the first story and one vault door in the second story were omitted, making one vault in the first story and one in the second story only, saving would be $210.

If eight feed boxes were omitted, the saving would be $8.

If boiler plate covering on walls and stalls were omitted the saving would be $8.

If a wooden ladder were substituted for an iron ladder from the first floor to loft the saving would be $5.

If the sergeant's desk in the police department with its platform, drawers, lockers, railing and gate were left out, the saving would be $100.

If all the lockers in the firemen's sitting room, with their shelves, etc., were omitted the saving would be $180.

If the tile roof of the tower was changed to slate, the saving would be $4.

If the wrought iron grilles in the tower were changed to cast iron, there would be no saving.

If the grain bins were changed from concrete to wood construction lined with galvanized iron, they would cost more than in concrete.

If all hardware trimmings specified is changed to yellow pine of similar character we can save $140.

Taking up the plumbing contract, omitting the fixtures for the present, the rough work can be done for $783, saving $755.

If we do all work of piping the building for steam heating but set no radiators until next fall, we can save $441.

If we leave out the electric contract, all the gas and electric fixtures and also the tripped master switch shown in the fire department, the saving would be about $450.

To Recapitulate.

Saving in general contract..	$1,652.00
Saving in plumbing contract	755.00
Saving in heating contract..	441.00
Saving in electric contract..	450.00
Total.....	3,298.00

The total saving from the $32,133 we have the sum of $28,836.

We think you will agree that any further permanent change in construction would not only be a detriment to the building but would be a serious impairment.

The question at once naturally arises "cannot the building re reduced in size?" Our answer to this is firmly "No."

The first floor of the fire department is just wide enough to permit three pieces of appafatus to stand side by side, leaving runaways for the horses besides them. It is just long enough to permit the housing of a sixty-five foot truck and with the buildings the height of the Masonic, Holland and others, we need such a truck at the present time. We should not provide for a smaller one. There is no waste space on the first floor and certainly none on the second. The dormitory has room for only sixteen beds if they are properly spaced. The sitting room and hay loft are none too large, and the other rooms are as small as
